Public Relations

New maps to be displayed at all upcoming PR events showing world-wide zones of NA (in English and Spanish) Regions Around the World (there are over 70-thousand meetings weekly around the world) plus four interesting statistical breakdowns showing how meetings affect quality of life for addicts, and how addicts find their first NA meeting. Feel free to come by after today's meeting and take a look. Our Public Relations t-shirts, featuring a QR code which goes directly to BASCNA's meeting schedule, were so popular that we have put in an order for more. This time we'll be offering six new shirt colors which you will start to see around the rooms in the next few weeks. And finally, we will be on the road May 20th for the H&I learning day event. Come see our information booth and how we engage potential new members, and create relationships with people who may have addiction issues with family members.

In June we will also be participating in National PR-week events. For the Florida Region meetings will take place in Orlando. We will attend via zoom. That's all from PR this month. Thanks for allowing us to be of service. Our next sub committee meeting, which is your opportunity to join us, will be Sunday June 4th at 10:30am in the room next door following H&I
