Activities

Hello Bay Area. We had an amazing Annual New Year's Eve Party (Bringing Back The Prom). Approximately 110 in attendance with 80 people enjoy the full course Italian Dinner. Thank you to the Activities sun committee for planning and decorating for the event and another Thank You to all who attended and made another event possible. We hold our bi-weekly meetings on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of every month at Terra Nova at 630 pm in the main meeting room. There's no cleantime requirement to attend our meetings and be a member of our meetings. Our next event will be our annual Unity Day, it's presently in the planning stage so more info will be made available once it's all confirmed. We have also been invited to take part in Recovery Coast's (Pasco county's) annual Unity Day which we will be taking part in to show Bay Area's loving Unity with other areas. This is an all day event. Their theme will be based on the 10th step and 10th tradition. If you need any further info on their event, please refer to their website or contact me (Jay M.) We also have a full board, recently electing Brad F. as our new Treasurer. Thank you for allowing me to serve as Bay Area Activities subcommittee chairperson. ILS, Jay M.

Public Relations

All is well in PR!

Our t-shirt drive has been very successful with just eight shirts left to sell out of a first order of 59 shirts. We sold these at cost to generate interest and gauge the demand for certain sizes.

We will discuss the possibility of another order of shirts in February with an eye toward earning some profit to allow for other types of media buys in the Bay Area.

We will be attending an event January 21st called Ronnie’s Run, this is our second year attending. Ronnie was one of us. His family keeps the message of recovery alive in his memory with a 5K/10K/Walk fundraiser not affiliated with NA
