Last month we had two anniversaries

- (1) Larry L. - 35 years
- (2) Jonathan W. - 41 years

There has been a reduction in attendance the past few weeks.

One homegroup member, Claxton B. is experiencing illness and currently unable to attend.

The meeting is strong a lot of men are here every week a lot of sharing during the meeting. Men share from the heart and quickly welcome newcomers which gives us a very warm hello at our homegroup. With speakers or any anniversaries we have open up our meeting to all and announced it at other meetings. Our group has also had a few women attend our group for various reasons which to us does not matter. We are an a Narcotics Anonymous meeting which means any member in N.A. can get a seat at/in our meeting we are strong in our literature at our meeting. We started way back with the basic text then voted in the journey continues which over a year we read the entire book then back to the basic text. All the reading of our literature is read by addicts sitting in our chairs.

Open Sharing

Groups on Meeting List - Two groups have been confirmed to no longer meet and will be removed from the meeting list and online: Just for Tonight and 12 Step Warriors. Members confirmed that the following meetings that have been absent from ASC are still meeting: Aging in Recovery, Spiritual Principles (online), Serenity on the Southside, and Real Talk.

Policy - The latest policy should state, 'Revised September 2024.'

Meeting Parking - For the meetings that meet on Indian Rocks Beach, parking is now available at the Church of the Isles (not affiliated with NA).
